

Dear Parent,

Thank you for downloading this autumn break travel journal for kids. This is part of our holiday journals throughout the year that correspond with popular times for families to travel. I provided two journals, pick the one that best suits your need. One is meant to be filled out daily, the other is meant to be filled out for the whole trip. There's also a cover page if you need it.

I hope you and your child enjoy this travel journal break this autumn.

This is provided free for personal use only. Please direct others to our website if you think they'd be interested in a copy for themselves.

Thank you for supporting us at Kids Travel Books.
